Presenters include students (undergraduate, graduate, and professional), trainees, educators, and researchers in an academic or non-academic setting (e.g., industry, government, or non-profit laboratory, at every stage of career ranging from undergraduate level through established professionals). Abstracts pertinent to bench, translational, and clinical research in the areas of broadly understood pharmaceutical sciences and drug discovery are highly encouraged for submission. Abstracts need to be submitted as a single Word (.doc or .docx) or Rich Text (.rtf) file to the Section Chair, Dr. Jozef Stec at jstec@ketchum.edu no later than Monday April 2, 2018. Please include "AAASPD Contributed Session" in the e-mail subject line when submitting your abstract. All student presenters accepted for podium/poster presentations will automatically enter the competition to win one of the AAASPD sponsored student awards. Abstracts of all presented papers will be published in the proceedings of the AAASPD Annual Meeting.

Guidelines on abstract preparation and formatting can be found under the tab "Call for abstracts for contributed papers and posters" at: pacific.aaas.org/2018POMONA

Questions pertinent to abstract submission and/or informal inquiries can be directed via e-mail at: jstec@ketchum.edu or via phone at: (714) 872-5711.
